Dear Allie:

Prior to your departure for Europe, you may recollect that I told you of a young man named [redacted] at present with the F.B.I. who wants to shift to the C.I.A.

For your convenience, I am enclosing a letter he wrote me on September 12 with the enclosure referred to therein.

I would appreciate it if you will let me know whether there is any chance for Mr.

[redacted] to make the shift and if so, how we should take the matter up.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
